Investigation determined SGT HIGGINS committed the offense of Murder when he utilized his Advanced Combat Optical Gunsight (ACOG), which was attached to his assigned M4 semi-automatic rifle to scan, track and shoot Mr. QADIR. Mr. QADIR was struck with a single round in his neck which resulted in his death.

Additionally, this office received a request from the Department of Defense Inspector General to obtain a CODIS DNA sample from SGT HIGGINS. SGT HIGGINS was discharged from the U.S. Army and was no longer affiliated with the Department of Defense. Coordination was made with SGT HIGGINS, who would not voluntarily provide a CODIS DNA sample unless compelled legally. After a thorough legal review, it was determined there was no legal basis for SGT HIGGINS to provide a CODIS DNA sample to this office.
